Are You OBM?

As a member of the OBM team you can enjoy both flexibility and security with our excellent personnel packages and benefit from an exciting choice of opportunities, thanks to OBM's global network of clients.

OBM personnel stand out from the crowd.

Our reputation has been built on the quality of our workforce and we go out of our way to recruit only the most suitable people. We look for men and women who can share our satisfaction in a job well done and have the skills and experience to achieve it. We value integrity, loyalty and reliability and ensure that these qualities are suitably rewarded. Our clients expect the best and at OBM, we go that extra mile to provide it.

Are you OBM? Take the first step to finding out by asking yourself the following questions.

- Are you interested in joining a personnel company that is the first choice of the major oil and gas companies for specialist recruitment?
- Do you have logistics and supply chain experience such as Contracts Administration, Procurement, Logistics, Materials Control, Operations Accounting or related disciplines?
- Do you believe if a job's worth doing it's worth doing well?
- Are you conscientious and goal driven?
- Are you looking for flexibility and security?
- If you can answer yes to these questions then you are ready to take the next step towards joining the OBM team. In the first instance, please send us your CV today.

What We Do Differently

The difference begins right from the very beginning – selection. It goes without saying that we only recruit personnel with relevant skills and experience. However, we spend time and energy on getting to know everyone that we employ.

This is the only way that we can be sure that we can place you in a position that is right for YOU. We go out of our way to match up personnel with the right position, in the right location and with the right employer. It is in everyone's interest that this important combination is achieved and with OBM you can be sure that we pride ourselves on making it happen.

What Our Team Says About Us

At OBM we all work together as a team, pulling together as one. With OBM no matter what length your contract is, everyone is equally important to us.

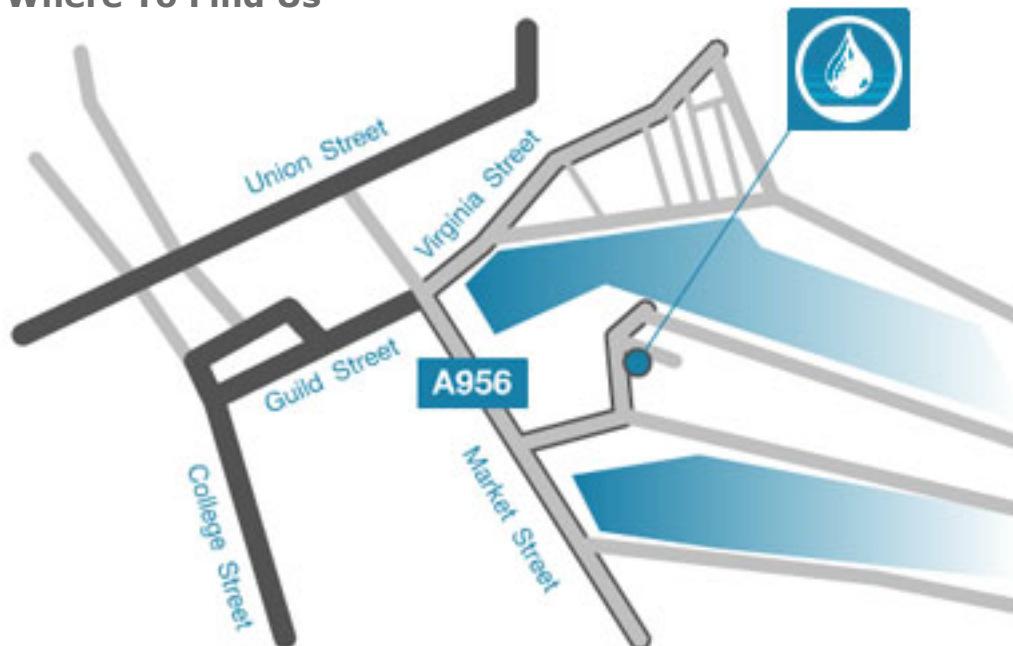

"We believe the fact that many of our workforce have been with us for 5 or more years is the best possible recommendation but let's see what some of them they have to say. You get a personal approach from OBM and can make contact with them at any time, this gives me a strong sense of security. If I was coming up for the end of the contract - Tony would look for something for me, it's not a case of thank you very much and good bye."

Yuen Lawson - Supply Chain Co-ordinator

"A lot of contractor companies treat you like a number, they take their percentage and off you go, but it is different with OBM. The platform that I am currently working on could go on for 10 years, but if circumstances changed, I feel that I could go back to OBM and confidently expect something else to come out of it for me. The greatest benefit I get from OBM is that I can sleep soundly at night."

Richard MacLean - Offshore Production Materials Controller
